Cultural Awareness for Peer Supporters

Join us for a free webinar designed for peer specialists (also applicable for recovery coaches) on cultural awareness for peer supporters.

This webinar is based on a part of a recovery curriculum from the SAMHSA-funded Recovery to Practice Project. This webinar, presented by Denise Camp of On Our Own of Maryland, This information will help peer supporters more effectively provide support. It will introduce participants to the Recovery to Practice Project and the full recovery curriculum.

Denise will present ways peer supporters can respect, appreciate and embrace cultural differences in others. She will cover the definition of “culture” and explore subcultures and how peer supporters can more effectively connect with those of other cultures.

The webinar is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 19, from Noon to 1 p.m., EDT. Participation information is provided on the following page. To receive a free certificate of participation, just complete the very brief quiz after the webinar (the link will also be found on our website (www.inaops.org)). A certificate will be mailed to you 3-4 weeks after the webinar.

No pre-registration is required!
