Robert Q. Kreider
FROM THE PRESIDENT AND CEO,
Robert Q. Kreider

This year's annual report punctuates the remarkable first century of Devereux while also reemphasizing our commitment to ever more effective services for individuals and communities with unique needs. Undoubtedly, many challenges lie ahead, but Devereux is well-positioned to begin its second century of service.

Throughout the year, our centers across the nation celebrated our anniversary in fine fashion – honoring the legacy of Miss Devereux, our employees, individuals in care and our generous donor family. Each event underscored the vital role Devereux plays, and has played, in the lives of Devereux's individuals and supporters. The capstone was our centennial celebration at the Philadelphia Museum of Art on November 10, 2012 gathering more than 1,000 Devereux faithful supporters in celebration. That night, the obvious pride and joy of families, friends, and staff members made a deep impression on me. It was an evening to reflect on, and appreciate, the contributions of the many individuals and organizations that have helped Devereux along the way.

The Devereux that begins its second century is a vital and unique organization with considerable strengths. By operationalizing our Philosophy of Care, we are providing the highest quality services in the nation. We are now a significantly more visible resource and vital part of the many communities in which we operate. For decades, we played the role of “quiet neighbor.” We now know that our voice is a powerful advocacy tool for those we serve – and we use it. Our services actively reach further into communities, school systems, and homes than ever before. And, unlike previous decades when our work was completely focused inside the walls of our programs with those served directly, we strongly emphasize service for our broader communities – by advocating for the social and emotional health of all people.

As Helena Devereux knew, our success is fortified by many “friends willing to believe in us and help along the way.” Devereux is, and has been, indeed fortunate to have the guidance and energies of many friends like the individuals on our Board of Trustees, Advisory Boards and our donor family. Their time, wisdom and generosity play a very significant role in our success.

I must say the same about the Devereux staff across the country who work so hard on behalf of Devereux's mission. Their expertise and compassion are at the heart of our success. We will continue to recruit, train, and retain great people. And, like Helena Devereux did, we will continue to identify and cultivate the next generation of leadership across Devereux.

Our future brings many challenges – and countless opportunities. The evolution of the electronic health record will bring an extraordinary opportunity to improve coordination of care – and present significant cost and management challenges. More effective and efficient universal healthcare in the United States mandated by legislation will significantly improve access, but the way forward remains unclear. Public payors will insist on risk sharing and reduced funding for providers, and we must develop programs that can respond to this trend. A “carve in” for behavioral health services will significantly change the way our services are provided, and paid for. Finally, the recognition that all categories of developmental disorders and mental illnesses can be best understood as developmental disorders of the brain will lead to exciting new treatment approaches.

While the challenges in behavioral health, and in our economy, remain great, on this, the dawn of our second century of service, we find Devereux well-positioned for a bright future. Join me in welcoming our next century. Your support of Devereux's work is a very special part of everything we accomplish. With your help, Devereux will continue to be, as Miss D. would say, “en route.” I can not wait to see where we are 100 years from now.

a letter

Sam Coppersmith
FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD,
Sam Coppersmith

As Devereux's first century of service draws to a close, I hope you feel as honored as I do to be part of the enduring legacy of a remarkable organization. I hope you have been inspired by some of the many stories of triumph from individuals and families whose hopes Devereux helped to realize. Those successes, and that tradition of never giving up despite great difficulties, are the very DNA of Devereux and show why our services are so vital. I thank you for everything you have done to help make Devereux successful for over 100 years.

I also want to thank my fellow Trustees and Advisory Board members for their leadership and generosity of time, expertise, and financial support. It is a privilege to work with such remarkable individuals, part of Devereux's rich tradition of volunteer leadership, both nationally and in individual communities across the country.

This year's centennial provided an opportunity to celebrate and to reflect, which showed how Devereux is so much more than a group of programs and centers. Even those of us familiar with the organization are continually surprised at the ever-expanding breadth and depth of our staff, programs, and achievements. Devereux is a beacon of hope for those in need. It is a legacy we need to respect, preserve, and grow.

People often ask, “How can I help?” Let me offer two suggestions.

Unsurprisingly, we need your philanthropic support. Even in the best economic times, providing the outstanding quality of services for which Devereux is known is challenging. In a less-than-excellent economy, that challenge increases. Please support your local Devereux Center or Devereux's national mission in any way that you can. Devereux's Second Century Fund, to grow our endowment and secure our future, would be a very good place to start.

I also ask that you visit a Devereux program and spend time with our staff – to have an experience that may just change you in fundamental ways. My experiences visiting our staff and clients have influenced my own perspective on life more than I could have imagined. Of course, we want people to learn about our century of history and about Helena T. Devereux, our inspirational founder, whose passion for helping youngsters set the special education world on its ear, and changed the future. But I think you will learn more, and change more, seeing what Devereux and its people are doing right now.

Helena Devereux often implored her colleagues to never give up, to find a creative way to reach children in need. She would say, “More important than how a story begins, is how it ends.” At Devereux, we have made her challenge into our enduring mission. We believe happier endings are possible for everyone, regardless of personal struggle or complexity of need. Whenever I talk to the individuals and families that struggle with emotional, behavioral, and developmental difficulties, I realize just how important that work is.

My deep thanks to all of Devereux's staff, partners, and supporters for making Devereux such a meaningful and uplifting organization. The first century helped tens of thousands of struggling individuals realize their hopes, and build lives of accomplishment and pride. That's a pretty good wind to have at our back as we begin our second century of service.

Helena T. Devereux
FROM
Helena T. Devereux

Our friends at my beloved Devereux have asked me to write one last message to Devereux's faithful before I return to the peace and quiet I have been so enjoying for the last few decades. I can tell you though, it surely was wonderful to be back in action with Devereux and participate in the remarkable celebration of our centennial.

Devereux's 100th Anniversary has been nothing short of spectacular. To have all of our friends, families, supporters and staff join voices, heartfelt emotions and actions as one was so gratifying to see. This celebratory year in particular, just like our first year of 1912, reminds me of one of my favorite quotes by Emerson, "This time, like all times, is a very good one, if we but know what to do with it." It seems we did.

Blessed with the redoubtable advantage of hindsight, I lived my life and guided Devereux influenced by this quote. Actions will always speak louder than words and my bias for action, in large part, served Devereux well. Oh, there were a few missteps along the way, but by and large a propensity for thoughtful action produced great results. I faced some real naysayers at times, but the organization that we have built together through a century speaks volumes. Like any parent, I am proud of this Devereux.

The century of success we have enjoyed, success that was built on the shoulders of people like you, is testimony to what a "fanciful idea" can become when you have the passion and support of people willing to take action. I am ever grateful for that support, and for the love and purpose you've shown to the tens of thousands of extraordinary children and adults, and their families, who have significantly improved lives because of Devereux's help.

The celebration of our history was capped when our family of supporters joined together at the Philadelphia Museum of Art for a spectacular gala. It was, in a word, breathtaking. Not only for the obvious splendor of it, but also for the fact that a thousand of us joined together in one place, at one time, to share our collective history of this special phenomenon we call Devereux.

I was so pleased that the stately Mr. Jim Gardner served as our master of ceremonies, and delighted that the Honorable Michael Nutter, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia, provided the keynote speech reinforcing Devereux's value to communities in Philadelphia and neighborhoods across the country. Maybe if the enlightened Mr. Nutter was mayor during my days as a teacher in the Philadelphia Public Schools, we may have been able to accomplish more for children, even sooner than we did! I also want to express my deep appreciation to our generous sponsors, corporations, friends, board members past and present, staff and families alike, for coming together over our anniversary weekend to raise more than $1 million for our beloved Devereux.

So what of the future and our second century of service? I would not be true to myself, and true to Devereux, without looking forward and expecting even bigger things of you. With the economic morass the country is just beginning to climb out of, the challenges ahead are formidable and complex. When you couple that with the rapid changes in funding and best practices in the healthcare industry, you know we have quite a lot of work to do.

I read carefully Devereux's new strategic plan to begin our next century of service. It is a sound and comprehensive plan that builds upon Devereux's successes and strengths. Importantly, the plan was fortified by information, perspectives and feedback from Devereux's stakeholders: the Board, management, staff in every Devereux Center, consumers and their families, payers and collaborators.

Ever the thoughtful planner, Mr. Robert Kreider graciously asked for my feedback on the plan. I offered my thoughts. I recommend that you read the abbreviated version of Devereux's strategic plan, Devereux's Second Century, which will be coming out soon. Feel free to ask Mr. Kreider for a summary of the plan. Knowing him as I do, he'll be happy to share it.

Notwithstanding that important document, here are some of my, and Mr. Kreider's, thoughts about a few of our initiatives and challenges that lie ahead.

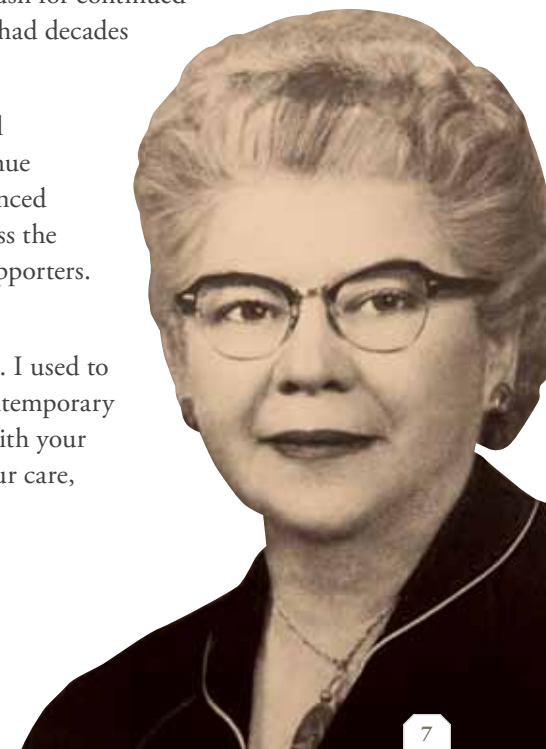

Throughout our first century of service, we pursued excellence in every aspect of care. That is the foundation and firmament of Devereux and the second century will continue to see us delivering excellence in all that we do. Devereux's culture will always help set the bar appropriately high. Through Devereux's guiding Philosophy of Care, we will take great measures to ensure that our services live up to our aspirations. Devereux will remain steadfast in our commitment to being the provider of highest quality services, while ensuring we are open to new opportunities and emerging best practices.

Devereux will provide a wide array of services from acute care to innovative community offerings. We will provide the most clinically appropriate level of care in the least restrictive settings. We will look to widen our collaborations with experts and universities to reach into schools and organizations in neighborhoods across the country. Prevention and early intervention services that promote resilience and support the social and emotional health of all children will be a focus going forward. We will also push for continued growth in several specialty areas such as autism; something I must add that we've had decades of experience in.

Safety, effectiveness, family and client centeredness, and treatment innovation will continue to be at the center of everything we do. Devereux will also look to continue our contributions to the field in general through research and the significant advanced education of the clinical and allied professionals trained at Devereux Centers across the country. Devereux's difference has always been rooted in its staff and its ardent supporters. We must continue to strengthen both.

Yes, in spite of the many challenges that lie ahead, Devereux's future is very bright. I used to encourage my staff by saying that Devereux must remain "always enroute!" In contemporary language, I say, with pride, that this Devereux is most certainly "on the move." With your help, we will find new and better ways to improve the lives of the individuals in our care, and the well-being of communities around us. Please join with our mission.

IT'S BEEN A GREAT 100 YEARS – AND IT'S JUST THE BEGINNING!

100th Anniversary Employee Celebration

Devereux's staff members make Devereux the truly unique organization it is and has been for 100 years. Devereux benefits from the expertise and dedication of a large number of staff (42) who have served the organization for more than 35 years. In a world where the average span of any one job lasts just 4.5 years, this is a testament to Devereux's caring culture and depth of expertise.

To recognize staff, a foundation-wide 100th Anniversary Employee Celebration and Family Fun Night was held at the Please Touch Museum in Philadelphia. With Ronald P. Burd, former President & CEO as event chairman, and Robert Q. Kreider, current President & CEO as emcee and host, a special dinner for 150 guests was given, honoring the longest-serving staff from across Devereux. With the help of a truly special and anonymous donor, all 42 longest tenured staff were invited to Philadelphia to attend this special celebration. The invitees and their guests from California, Texas, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, along with Devereux Trustees, Advisory Board Members, donors and senior staff came together for a wonderful celebration of lifetimes spent in service to our mission.

The celebration featured moving tributes to all the honorees, with special celebrations of three Devereux clients who have also served us as staff for more than 35 years, and four of our senior leadership women: Maggie McGill, Gail Atkinson, Maryanne Campbell and Sarah Ellen Lenahan. The ceremony ended with a moving tribute by Ron Burd to Devereux's own Bobbi Lewis, who has served Devereux for more than 50 years.

Following the dinner celebration, our guests moved into the main hall of the Please Touch Museum where they were greeted by more than 1,000 Devereux employees and their families from across Pennsylvania and New Jersey who had come to celebrate Devereux's Centennial, and be celebrated for their work with our individuals.

"FRIDAY NIGHT WAS JUST SPECTACULAR! I PERSONALLY CANNOT THANK YOU ENOUGH. THIS WAS ONE OF THE MOST WONDERFUL EVENTS EVER HELD AT DEVEREUX. I CAN BE CONFIDENT THAT I SPEAK ESPECIALLY FOR THOSE HONORED AND FOR ALL IN ATTENDANCE THAT NIGHT."
DR. SARAH ELLEN LENAHAN (DEVEREUX VICE PRESIDENT, 41 YEARS OF SERVICE)

"THIS WAS TRULY A NIGHT TO REMEMBER! THANK YOU AGAIN."
BOB WHEELER (DEVEREUX MASSACHUSETTS, 46 YEARS OF SERVICE)

centennial celebrations

Once upon a century...

A star-studded November night above a shimmering Philadelphia skyline served as a glorious backdrop for Devereux's 100th Anniversary Gala. Sequins and bowties were ubiquitous as more than 1,000 Devereux friends and supporters gathered in a grand transparent tent on the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, one of the most breathtaking spots in Philadelphia.

The Devereux Gala honored the remarkable legacy of founder Helena Devereux, a young ground-breaking Philadelphia school teacher. Highly anticipated, the gala marked 100 years of continuous Devereux services to children and adults with emotional and developmental challenges. Like Devereux's legacy of success, the event more than delivered on its promise.

There were wonderful refreshments, delectable food prepared by Philadelphia's incomparable culinary legend, Stephen Starr, and music and dancing set against the gem-like Philadelphia night sky. The fun and fab event kicked off with attention-grabbing auctions and the inaugural viewing of a commemorative film tracing Devereux's impressive 100-year history.

It was a full throttle night of generosity, glamour, and fun. The gala, and the wonderful weekend surrounding it, raised over one million dollars!

AND IN DEVEREUX CENTERS ACROSS THE COUNTRY...

Devereux Arizona was featured in a special anniversary edition of the Phoenix Business Journal and received a congratulatory letter of recognition from Secretary of State, Ken Bennett.

Devereux California, the second oldest center in the organization, celebrated Devereux's 100th Anniversary in style at Devereux California's 100 Year Hootenanny! Over 200 attendees celebrated including individuals served in Devereux California, families, current and former staff, and special friends from the community.

Devereux Colorado used social media throughout the year to connect with its community and tweeted celebratory information while featuring the 100th celebration and legacy information on its Facebook pages.

Devereux Florida staff and supporters were joined by almost 200 community members in celebration of Devereux's Centennial. The event took place at the Brevard County Zoo and commemorated 100 years nationally and 25 years of serving children and families in Florida. The event also honored Joseph and John Duda, of A. Duda and Sons, for their 25 years of support to Devereux Florida.

Devereux Georgia created a special new Devereux Georgia video that highlights the 100th Anniversary of the Foundation, founder Helena Devereux, and the history of Devereux.

Devereux Massachusetts students planned and then held their own remarkable formal gala in celebration of Devereux's 100th anniversary. The student gala dance included auction items for bid and the students used "Devereux dollars" they had earned!

Devereux New Jersey celebrated the remarkable legacy of 100 years of Devereux in a sold out event in Mt. Laurel, NJ. During the evening, Mary Beth and John Gustafsson were presented with the 2012 Devereux New Jersey Leadership Award for their incredible commitment, leadership and generosity to Devereux.

Devereux New York – Devereux's 100th anniversary coincided with the 20th graduating class at the Red Hook Campus and 25 years of Devereux in New York. Two dozen alumni from the Red Hook campus returned for the graduation ceremony and took time to acknowledge these individuals and their successes during our ceremony.

Devereux Pennsylvania Adult Services Division held a Festival Day event with the theme of "Then and Now" during which a donated special tree was planted in honor of the 100th anniversary while staff and clients placed memories into a time capsule.

Devereux Texas held several 100th anniversary events including the Hope Gala, the My Holiday Wishes Appeal, and the Divots for Devereux Golf Classic. Impressively, 11 Texas Advisory Board members attended the 100th gala in Philadelphia!

ENSURING CONTINUED SUCCESS: DEVEREUX'S SECOND CENTURY CAMPAIGN

In addition to celebrating the remarkable success of our first 100 years, our centennial was also a time to plan for our future. In November of 2011, Devereux launched the Second Century Campaign, a $20 million fundraising initiative designed to build our endowment, and ensure Devereux's long-term financial security. As this annual report goes to press, we are excited to announce that more than $12.9 million has been raised in the first year of the campaign. Please turn the page to learn more about how the Second Century Campaign will support our future.

SECURING

the second century

Now is the moment for Devereux to secure our future. A gift to Devereux is an investment in securing the future for generations to come.

As we celebrate Miss Devereux's legacy and our remarkable 100th Anniversary, we recognize this unique opportunity to further secure our future through continued partnerships with our friends and families. As Miss D. did by selling milk door to door during the tough times, we must ensure that those in our care are not subject to the vagaries of government funding and fluctuating economies. We must not miss this opportunity to build on our foundation of strength, to raise our profile, to extend our circle of friends, and to ensure we will always be here for families and communities in need. Following a century of being "a quiet neighbor," we are poised to be a national voice to combat the stigma associated with behavioral healthcare issues and increase philanthropic support for desperately needed services.

To honor Miss Devereux's legacy, and provide for our future, we are proudly conducting our Second Century Campaign — a $20 million fundraising initiative to ensure that Devereux remains the strong, vibrant provider of outstanding care that we have spent the last 100 years becoming.

Through a century of service, we have distinguished ourselves as a strong and stable provider of behavioral healthcare services, as well as a responsible steward of our resources. We've proven our ability to withstand economic turmoil, changing market conditions and shifts in the political landscape. While a gift elsewhere in the industry might fund immediate operating needs, a gift to Devereux is an investment in securing the future for generations to come. At a time when we are surrounded by considerable economic unrest and turmoil, you can rest assured that your support of the Devereux Second Century Campaign will create a meaningful legacy for the next generation.

YOUR FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE SECOND CENTURY CAMPAIGN WILL HELP DEVEREUX:

- Provide comprehensive services and quality of life enrichment to individuals with developmental and behavioral challenges in the least restrictive, most clinically appropriate settings
- Attract and retain the top professionals in the behavioral healthcare industry to our organization
- Lead the way in developing new programs and services in needed areas like transition to independent living and employment support for individuals with autism
- Make services accessible to more families across the country regardless of their ability to pay
- Raise Devereux's national profile with the public and in the therapeutic community
- Create a stronger voice in the debate to educate legislators about the importance of mental health and disability funding
- Fund new programs and services to enable individuals with intellectual disabilities and mental illness to live safely and independently in the community
- Deliver Positive Behavioral Support and resilience-building programs to public schools to counter violence and poor academic performance and promote the social and emotional health of all children
- Serve as a national voice to erase the stigma associated with mental illness and developmental disabilities

Thank you for helping to carry Helena Devereux's vision into the 21st Century. Your personal philanthropy is essential to our ongoing success and to enabling Devereux to realize our potential.

Miss Devereux believed that with faith, forethought, perseverance and good friends, nothing was impossible. We agree, and ask for your partnership in our Second Century.
