About the Event

Buffalo Bowl is a 6 on 6 flag football tournament held at Highmark Stadium, home of the Buffalo Bills. Teams are made up of up to 12 players and are guaranteed 3 games. The event will held on Saturday, June 8th , 2024. There are six different divisions to choose from:

Amateur League-this division is for teams that haven't played together before. The teams in this division are looking to have a fun time and play on more of a recreation style division.

Co-Ed League-this division requires 2 females on the field at all times.

First Responders League-this division is reserved for teams that are associated with a First Responders agency.

Middle School League- this division is reserved for participants that are in 5th-7th grade. Participants must fall in the birthdates of 11/30/2001-11/30/2014. Two coaches will be allowed to be on each team. They will not count towards the 12 participant maximum.

High School League-this division is reserved for participants that are in 8th-12th grade. Participants must fall in the birthdates of 12/1/2009-12/1/2007. Two coaches will be allowed to be on each team. They will not count towards the 12 participant maximum. High School teams can choose to play in our Unified Division or traditional. Unified High School teams MUST have at least 2 Athletes on the field at all times.

Pro League-this division is for teams that have played flag football together before. This is a competitive division.

2024 marks the eight annual Buffalo Bowl . Each year this event continues to grow. Be a Hero. Play like a Pro for our local Athletes.
