53rd Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Brotherhood Breakfast

YMCA OF METROPOLITAN LOS ANGELES

ABOUT THE DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING JR. BROTHERHOOD CELEBRATION

The first YMCA of Metropolitan Los Angeles Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Brotherhood Breakfast was held in 1971 to honor King's life, his legacy of peace, and to reaffirm our commitment to realizing his vision of a just and inclusive world for all. Since then our commitment to creating a world devoid of poverty, racism and all forms of discrimination has never wavered. Now in its 52nd year, the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Brotherhood Breakfast has taken on special meaning within the LA YMCA and the Greater Los Angeles community. It is unique in its ability to inspire and to heal everyone in attendance. It also empowers attendees to take the ideals King stood for and put them into practice in their community.

Long before Dr. King's birthday became a national holiday, the LA Y's celebration has been an inspiring start to each new year, with a long list of distinguished speakers. Offering their unique perspective on the relevance of Dr. King's message to current times, recent speakers include Dr. Shirley N. Weber, California Secretary of State; Stedman Graham, CEO of S. Graham and Associates; Dean Alfred E. Osborne, Jr. of UCLA Anderson School of Management; Glenn "Doc" Rivers, American Basketball Coach; Vice President of the United States Kamala Harris; Antonia Hernández, leader of the California Community Foundation; and Olympian Rafer Johnson — drawing a typical audience of 700 to 1,000 people from across Los Angeles.

Two prestigious awards are presented during the breakfast: the YMCA Brotherhood and Human Dignity Awards. The recipients are community leaders who exemplify Dr. King's core values and promote social responsibility.

At the Y, strengthening communities is our cause. We understand, as Dr. King did, that lasting social change can only be achieved when everyone works together. We are also proud that Martin Luther King, Jr. grew up as a member of the Butler Street YMCA in Atlanta, Georgia. In his honor, we gather from all points across the city, to move forward together; to re-energize our commitment to our communities; to re-dedicate ourselves to the Y's cause of youth development, healthy living and social responsibility for all of our neighbors, so that a stronger community, better city, and a greater world can emerge.

The 53rd Annual Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Brotherhood Breakfast will be celebrated on January 19, 2024 at the Westin Bonaventure Hotel, Downtown Los Angeles.
